

Seven readings to get started.

Bible readings to share with your family.

Open a passage, read the devotion, and choose a question to talk about.
Finish with a prayer. Each reading includes Scripture and suggested answers.

Read on seven days or spread them out. There is no deadline to finish.

Make time to talk about what you read.

Read aloud together, or choose a passage to discuss on a call.
With younger children, try one question and give them time to answer.
